This Week's Program

R/ Mufadala (Mimi) Boven

Economic Specialist

U.S. Consulate, Jerusalem

"From Yemen to Jerusalem"

R/ Mimi Boven is an American of Yemeni origin. She is married, and her husband is a U.S. diplomat currently assigned to the U.S. Consulate General in Jerusalem. They arrived in Jerusalem in May 2015 and will remain posted here until June 2019.

During her time in Jerusalem, Mimi has been studying Hebrew and has developed relationships with local Israeli and Palestinian entrepreneurs. She is learning more about entrepreneurship at present with the goal of starting her own business in the future.

Prior to Jerusalem, Mimi and her husband were posted to Mumbai, India. There, she was responsible for community outreach at the U.S. Consulate General in Mumbai. Prior to Mumbai, they were posted to the U.S. Embassy in Sana'a Yemen. While in Sana'a, Mimi worked with the Embassy's Public Diplomacy section where she coordinated the Embassy's cultural and exchange programs.

She has a Bachelor's degree in English Literature and has both private and public sector work experience.
